

Saturday 21 & Sunday 22

Continue to pray for SGA-sponsored missionaries as they distribute food and aid to families in East Ukraine affected by war and Covid-19. May this practical Christianity break down opposition to the Gospel. Pray that broken families will be restored through faith in Jesus and peaceful, godly homes established.

Monday 23

Vladimir and Guennadi are responsible for the Humanitarian Projects Dept. of the Baptist Union in Ukraine. Pray for wisdom as they distribute aid provided by SGA.

Tuesday 24

Roman Wecherkovskiy is SGA's Regional Co-ordinator in Ukraine. Pray for him as he oversees SGA's ministries - Project 70, Church Planting Bible School and other initiatives.

Wednesday 25

Odessa Theological Seminary, Ukraine is supported by SGA. Pray for the faculty and the students as they study both in the classroom and online. May future servants of God be prepared for fruitful ministry.

Thursday 26

Pray for Pastor Igor Bandura as he serves the Lord as Senior Vice President of the Ukrainian Baptist Union. He and his wife Ana are very grateful to the Lord for the way He has blessed their family.

Friday 27

Remember Lisa Chow, husband Chi Wah and family in Rugby. Lisa assists on a part-time basis in the Rugby Office. May she be a blessing to supporters as she distributes reports of how the Lord is working in EE, C Asia, and FE Russia.

Saturday 28 & Sunday 29

Dr Paul Negrut from Emanuel University, Oradea, Romania writes "God is good... all of our 107 graduates of the 2020 class have finished well". Praise the Lord for His help and pray that the new student intake will settle into the new academic year.

Monday 30

Due to uncertainties surrounding Covid19 pandemic, it has been difficult to plan the 2021 teaching programme. Please pray for our endeavours to teach either in the classroom or online, so that the ministry is not hindered.

WE GIVE THANKS FOR ANSWERED PRAYER

- We are thankful to the Lord for the steady interest in Project70 [Field] with churches and individuals sponsoring missionary families. Praise God that this is greatly contributing to Gospel advancement.
- Praise God for Project70 [Home] where over fifty new churches have come onboard to partner with the Mission. We are hoping to reach 70!

Slavic Gospel Association

Prayer Bulletin

November 2020

Print Edition

22 Little Church Street, Rugby
Warwickshire CV21 3AW
Tel 01788 220699
E-mail office@sga.org.uk
www.sga.org.uk

Much Prayer • Much Power

Sunday 1

Pray for General Director, Derek Maxwell and wife Carole in Co Armagh, NI. Remember Derek as he ministers to churches in NI, as well as directing the work of the Mission, alongside working with colleagues in SGA. May he be blessed and be a blessing to those whom he contacts.

Monday 2

SGA sponsored missionary John Patras reports that there have been several funerals of young children in Poroskovo area of Ukraine due to the pandemic crisis. He seeks to use the funerals as evangelistic opportunities. May God cause people to think about their own eternal future and preparing to meet God.

Tuesday 3

Social Media Platforms are increasingly being used by our missionaries in EE and C Asia to reach the lost. Pray that these opportunities will be greatly used of the Lord to turn people's hearts to Him.

Wednesday 4

Pray for Nikolai and Olga Bobkov who work among the Uyghur people group in KAZAKHSTAN. This group is predominantly Muslim and in great spiritual darkness.

Thursday 5

We are thankful for the many SGA prayer supporters, and all those who regularly meet to pray for the work. May they be encouraged by answers to prayer, and may God keep them faithful in remembering the work of the Mission.

Friday 6

Pray for Andrew Coleclough and wife Jan in Cheshire. Andrew is responsible for much of SGA's media ministry. Pray that he will know the Lord's help as he seeks to encourage churches in the North of England and North Wales.

Saturday 7 & Sunday 8

We give thanks that opportunities are opening again for SGA staff to share about the work of the Mission in the UK and Ireland. Pray that the restrictions will soon be lifted and that both staff and churches alike will be encouraged by what the Lord is doing in E Europe, C Asia and FE Russia.

Monday 9

It is very difficult for evangelical churches in the former Soviet nations of Central Asia due to the influence and dominance of Islam. Pray for the advance of the Gospel to millions of people who desperately need to hear.

Tuesday 10

Pray for the 12 missionary families sponsored through Project70. Pray that they will experience God's power and blessing in evangelism and church planting.

Wednesday 11

Pray for new pastors and church planters in Central Asia, many of whom face daily opposition and antagonism. Pray that the Word of Life that they bring will break down hardened hearts and that many will turn from darkness to light.

Thursday 12

SGA has partnered with Trans World Radio for the past 4 years by supporting the radio programme "Power in Persecution" in Central Asia. Pray that believers will be strengthened and encouraged through this programme.

Friday 13

Pray for Office Administrator Sharon Howard, and husband Andy in Northants. May she know the Lord's wisdom and daily help as she seeks to oversee the practical elements of the Mission in the Rugby Office.

Saturday 14 & Sunday 15

Mission School teaching is planned for the next 2 weeks in Moldova. Pray for SGA's co-ordinator and M.S. Director, Peter Mihalchiuk as he seeks to oversee the ministry as well as encourage and mentor new church planters in Moldova. Pray for the students as they learn the deeper truths of God, that they will be well prepared for future ministry.

Monday 16

We thank God for those sponsored by SGA who are involved in translation and literature ministry. Many countries do not have access to good Christian literature as we do. Pray that God will grant them clear minds to be able to express the great truths of the Word through their literature.

Tuesday 17

Viacheslav Andriesh is a new missionary with Project70, working in Petrovaka village, Moldova, where people are extremely poor. By taking provisions to people, opportunities are offered to share the Gospel. He has also commenced a Bible study group. Pray for this ministry today.

Wednesday 18

Remember Donat and Barbara Ficsor as they lead the work of Good News Foundation in Orgavany, Hungary. Donat suffers with ill-health, so please pray that he will be sustained for all the ministries in which he is involved.

Thursday 19

It is hoped that mission school sessions will commence today in both Romania and Poland. Pray for students and teachers alike as they fellowship together either in the classroom or online.

Friday 20

Pray for Chris and Karen Menzfeld living and serving the Lord in Devon. Chris is responsible for visiting churches in the South West and South Wales. May he know great encouragement as he seeks to promote the work in those areas.